

Things That Are Important For The Care Provider To Communicate To the Birth Parent

Care Provider: _____ Child: _____

1. How is the child is doing in school:

2. What the child likes to eat in the care providers home (favorite foods):

3. Who are the child's best friends at school and in the home:

4. What appointments the child had during the week:
Mental Health: _____
Doctor: _____
Dental: _____
Other health related issues:

5. How the child is doing in out-of-home care:
Compliance with rules _____
Discipline _____
Bedtime _____
Other issues _____

6. Any concerns you have concerning the child's adjustment:

7. Does the parent have any questions about their child?

